Capitalization and Punctuation Rules

Capital Letters

Always use a capital letter for...

the first word of a sentence	Thank you for the letter.
the first word in a quotation	She said, "Today is beautiful."
the greeting and closing in a letter	Dear John                      Sincerely, Sherry
the names of days, months, and holidays	Thursday                      November                      Thanksgiving people's first and last names, their initials, and their titles	Mrs. Smith and Phil were seen by Dr. Lee the word that names yourself - I	My friend and I love horses.
the names of streets, cities, and states	Palm Avenue                      Mesa, Arizona
the names of specific buildings and monuments	Statue of Liberty                      Empire State Building the titles of stories, movies, TV shows, video games, etc.	Night at the Museum                      Star Wars

Quotation Marks

Use quotation marks...

before and after words that are spoken by someone	"I love to read chapter books," said Sharon.
around words that are being discussed or emphasized	A man-made lake is called a "reservoir."
newspaper articles, titles of poems, songs, short stories, etc	"Hot and Cold" by Katie Perry

End Punctuation

Use a period, a question mark, or an exclamation point...

period – when you end a statement	I like cookies.
question mark – when you ask a question	Do you like cookies?
exclamation point – when you have an excited or emotionally charged statement	I absolutely love cookies!
